HOME ENERGY AUDITORS APPLICATION

“Home Energy Audit” shall mean a comprehensive measurement based on diagnostic analysis of a home’s energy performance, performed by an individual accredited to perform home energy audits by any of the following organizations: the Building Performance Institute (BPI), the Residential Energy Services Network (RESNET), Home Energy Rating System (HERS), the American Society for Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers, or other certifying entity approved or certified by a State or Federal agency authorized to certify home energy auditors.

Upon completion of the attached application and after providing proof of completion of an accredited program, you will be provided with a three (3) year registration.

Note: At least one (1) registered home energy auditor must be present at any home energy audit conducted in Suffolk County.

Proof of completion of an accredited program authorizing you to perform home energy audits must accompany this registration application. A licensed architect or engineer may also perform home energy audits.
