

OPEN SPACE

+

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

+

DOWNTOWN REVITALIZATION

Join us for a town hall meeting on Tuesday, January 31, 2012
7:00 PM–9:00 PM

H. Lee Dennison Building – Media Room

100 Veterans Memorial Highway Hauppauge, NY 11778

Weigh in on programs linking open space protection to downtown revitalization.

Speakers will include

Paul Beyer; New York State Department of State
Jennifer Cribbs; U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
Adrienne Esposito; Citizens Campaign for the Environment
Michael Kelly; Long Island Builders Institute

The meeting will include a presentation on the work of the New York–Connecticut Sustainable Communities Consortium, a collaboration of local governments and regional planning organizations. We will also discuss Suffolk County’s efforts to accommodate population growth while protecting natural resources through transfer of development rights programs.

The New York-Connecticut Sustainable Communities Consortium is a partnership working with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and other federal agencies to create economic opportunity, housing options, transit and a better quality of life for you and your community.

For more information, go to sustainablenyct.org or facebook.com/sustainablenyct

Learn how...

- the partnership is working to expand job and housing opportunities
- Suffolk and Nassau are participating as part of this effort
- to obtain preferred status for federal grant applications
- you can get involved

Tell Us...

- your priorities for your community or organization
- how we should measure our success

To RSVP for the meeting, go to: <http://hauppaugescitownhall.eventbrite.com>

For questions, Andrew Freleng at Andrew.Freleng@suffolkcountyny.gov, 631.853.5191 or Brian Dennis at bdennis@rpa.org, 917.546.4316