HELPING VETS TO GO FROM 'BOOTS TO SUITS'

Legislator Hahn announces training seminar for those with military backgrounds

PORT JEFFERSON, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Kara Hahn today announced that there will be a Boot to Suits training seminar held on Friday, September 14th from 8:30 AM to 12:30 PM at Touro Law School in Central Islip. This free program has been developed for recent veterans, National Guard members, reservists and those working with the military in an effort to assist these individuals in transitioning from military service to the civilian job market.

This seminar has been organized by the National Association of Social Workers' Suffolk Division and will feature presentations by Dr. James Mullin on using Military Experience as an Employment Asset and Michelle Cavaleri, LCSW-R on Bridging Military Codes to Civilian Job Market Opportunities. Attendees are encouraged to bring along a current résumé or list of personal work experiences to the event. To register or find out more about Boots to Suits please e-mail: loislogan@aol.com.
