Setauket Vocalist Performs for Suffolk Legislature

Anna Lubitz of Setauket sings the National Anthem during the December 1, 2015 meeting of the Suffolk County Legislature in Riverhead.

Legislator Kara Hahn (right) welcomes vocalist Anna Lubitz (left) to the Suffolk County Legislature on December 1, 2015.

RIVERHEAD, NY – Local vocalist Anna Lubitz opened this week’s meeting of the Suffolk County Legislature with a powerful rendition of our National Anthem. Lubitz, a Setauket resident and graduate of both Ward Melville High School and Stony Brook University, was invited by her Legislator, Kara Hahn, to perform during the body’s December 1, 2015 session.

While this was Lubitz’s first appearance before the Suffolk County Legislature, it was not the first time she has performed to an audience that included governmental leaders. In 2013, Ms. Lubitz sang at an event at which now former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton was a guest.

In addition to singing, Lubitz is pursuing a dual Master's degree in Business Administration and Public Health at Stony Brook University where she previously served as its Undergraduate Student Government's President during the 2012-2013 academic year.
