DONATE A TOY TO UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILDREN OR A COAT FOR THOSE IN NEED

This holiday season, Legislator Tom Cilmi is joining with the Kiwanis Club of the Islips and Bay Shore Inc. to collect unwrapped toys for underprivileged children. In addition, the office will collect new or used coats for those in need.

Legislator Cilmi said, “For some, this time of year can be particularly difficult as they struggle to provide even the bare necessities of food and warm clothes for themselves and their loved ones, much less a toy or two for their children. I am once again appealing to the generosity of our community to help me bring a little bit of comfort and joy to those less fortunate.”

Anyone wishing to donate a new or used (in good condition) coat or a new toy can do so by dropping them off at Legislator Cilmi’s office located at 96 East Main Street, Suite 5, East Islip by December 14th. For more information, please contact Legislator Cilmi’s Office at (631) 854-0940.
