

Stormwater Pollution Presentation

Teacher Evaluation Form

Dear Teacher:

This free program was presented by a Stormwater Educator from Cornell Cooperative Extension of Suffolk County. Cornell Cooperative Extension is conducting school programs for the Suffolk County Stormwater Management Program. Funding for the program was provided by Suffolk County. Thank you for taking the time to fill out this evaluation. Completed evaluations can be handed to the instructor or mailed to Mark Cappellino, 3690 Cedar Beach Road, Southold, NY 11971

Program Title: Be a Stormwater Super Hero _____ Meet Stormy Waters _____

Instructor Name: _____ Date: _____ Grade: _____

1. Were your educational expectations of this program met? Yes _____ No _____
If no, please explain why _____

2. Do you feel the program was appropriate for the grade level? Yes _____ No _____

3. Does the program fit into your curriculum? Yes _____ No _____

4. What do you think your students learned from this program? (Please be specific) _____

5. Comments about teaching techniques:

a) Pace of program: Too slow _____ Properly paced _____ Too fast _____

b) Ratio of visual/lecture presentation:

Too much lecture _____ OK as is _____ Too much visual _____

c) Usefulness of visuals and props:

Strengthened the lecture _____ Neutral _____ Detracted from the lecture _____

d) Was the presentation clear and interesting?

Above average _____ Average _____ Below average _____

6. How do you think this program could be improved?

7. Will you follow up this program in later lesson plans/activities? If so, describe:

8. How would you rate the student worksheet provided? Very Useful _____ Somewhat Useful _____

Didn't Use _____

9. Would you recommend this program to other teachers? Yes _____ No _____

10. What overall rating would you give this program?

Excellent _____ Very Good _____ Good _____ Fair _____ Poor _____

Please use back of sheet for any additional comments.

NAME: _____

SCHOOL: _____

ADDRESS: _____

STEVE BELLONE
COUNTY EXECUTIVE
AND
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND PLANNING

Be the Solution to Stormwater Pollution