Patchogue, NY – Legislator Rob Calarco was recently notified that he has been selected as an honoree in Stony Brook University’s “40 Under Forty” award. The award, in its inaugural year, honors Stony Brook University alumni who excel in the fields of business, research, technology, healthcare, the arts, leadership, community, educational, entrepreneurial or philanthropic endeavors.

“It is a great honor to be recognized by one’s peers,” stated Legislator Rob Calarco. “I am humbled by this award and am proud to be in such great company with the other award recipients.”

Legislator Calarco was elected to the Suffolk County Legislator in November 2011 and was selected as the Democratic Majority Leader in January 2014. He received his Masters in Public Policy from Stony Brook University in 2005. A reception for the honorees will be held on December 2.
