FROM THE OFFICE OF LEGISLATOR ROB CALARCO Legislator Calarco Hangs Ribbons for Our Troops with Troop 47

Legislator Rob Calarco joined Boy Scout Troop #47 to replace the yellow ribbons that line North Ocean Avenue in Patchogue Village. A tradition that dates back to the years following World War II, the ribbons signify absent or missing loved ones and have long been used as symbol of hope for American troops to return home safely.

“I am proud to sponsor these ribbons every fall and spring and I am grateful to Troop #47 for hanging them. I wish all our troops a safe return home,” said Leg. Calarco.
