(Medford)-Legislator Rob Calarco joined the Medford Chamber of Commerce, the Medford Taxpayer and Civic Association and the Patchogue-Medford Library at Medford Memorial Park for the last concert of this summer’s annual “Medford Concert Series.” The event was funded by Hotel/Motel taxes that are used to promote cultural activities in Suffolk County downtowns. It was also support by County Executive Steve Bellone.

“The Medford Concert Series has become a summer tradition,” stated Legislator Rob Calarco. “Not only do families get to enjoy some of Long Island’s best bands for free in a beautiful setting, but local businesses thrive because of increased foot traffic. I am proud to sponsor this annual event and want to thank the County Executive, the Chamber of Commerce, the Civic Association and the Library for their help and support in pulling this series together.”
