LEGISLATOR CALARCO HONORS VFW "PATRIOT'S PEN" AWARD WINNERS

MEDFORD, NY: Suffolk County Legislator and Majority Leader Rob Calarco honored two winners of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Suffolk County Council's "Patriot's Pen" essay contest.

First place winner Jennifer Duclay (left) wrote of her experiences visiting European battlefields and cemeteries. Second place winner Ami-Marie Gordon (right) wrote about a family's experience when soldiers return with physical and mental trauma.

"Congratulations to Jennifer and Ami-Marie," stated Legislator Calarco. "Their essays reflect the best and brightest of Suffolk County's middle school students and their views on democracy and veterans issues are inspiring to read."
