(BAYPORT-NY)- Suffolk County Legislator Bill Lindsay III has recently appointed Michelle Kelly, of Ms. Michelle's Urban Gourmet, as the 8th Legislative District's representative to the Suffolk County Women's Advisory Commission. The Suffolk County Women's Advisory Commission makes recommendations to the Suffolk County Division of Women's Services, the Suffolk County Executive, and the Suffolk County Legislature with the main goal of eliminating discrimination against women; ensuring equal opportunities for women, and promoting the status of women in both the public and private sectors.

"Michelle is an extraordinary business owner and person," said Lindsay III. "She is a pioneer on Long Island in the gluten-free food industry and knows exactly what it takes to succeed."

In addition to holding a Pastry Arts Degree from Peter Krumps Culinary School, Michelle holds both a Bachelor's Degree in Education and a Master's Degree in Spanish. After serving as an educator for over 4 years, Michelle embarked on a very unique journey, opening up Ms. Michelle's Urban Gourmet in 2010. Her bakery was the first organic gluten-free bakery café of its kind on Long Island and was quickly recognized by Delight Gluten Free Magazine as part of its "Best Bakeries in America" list and by the Long Island Press as part of their "Best of Long Island" list.

"Michelle's tremendous determination and commitment to all residents of Suffolk County made her the clear choice to be our representative," stated Lindsay III. "I am very eager to partner with Michelle to ensure that women are given fair and equal opportunities to succeed in all avenues of life, here on Long Island."

Michelle is also an active member of the Rotary Club of Sayville and the Bayport-Blue Point Chamber of Commerce, where she serves as the Chamber's Recording Secretary.
