NEWS FROM THE 11TH DISTRICT
BARRAGA CONGRATULATES 11TH LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT'S WOMAN OF DISTINCTION – MARY REID

Shown L-R; Tommie Brown, Trustee First Baptist Church of Bay Shore; Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) Mary Reid, First Baptist Church of Bay Shore and Reverend Dr. Daris Dixon-Clark of First Baptist Church of Bay Shore.

Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) recently met with Mary Reid to congratulate her as the 11th Legislative District's 2012 Woman of Distinction.

Every year each County Legislator selects a "Woman of Distinction" who resides in his/her respective Legislative District to be honored by each District Office.

Mary Reid, a resident of Bay Shore and congregant of the First Baptist Church of Bay Shore has been a community activist for many years. She has participated in numerous organizations, among them the Brentwood Booster Club, Brentwood School Board, Brentwood Public Library, Small World Day Care Center, African American Advisory Board Interfaith Council, Bay Shore Summit Council. Even in retirement Ms. Reid continues to be an inspiration to many, a truly outstanding member of the community.
