Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) along with other elected officials recently attended the much anticipated ribbon-cutting officially opening the Cortland Square development. The condominium complex located in Bay Shore was a joint effort by the Town of Islip Community Development Agency, Long Island Housing Partnership (LIHP), the Department of Urban Development (HUD) and community leaders. The four-building project financed by the Town of Islip, Suffolk County and federal, state and private resources is part of the downtown revitalization efforts spearheaded by Bay Shore Chamber of Commerce President, Donna Periconi.
