BARRAGA HONORED AT THE SPORTSMEN'S ASSOCIATION FOR FIREARMS EDUCATION CIVIL RIGHTS CONFERENCE

Legislator Barraga (R-West Islip) was recently honored by the Sportsman's Association for Firearms Education Inc. at their Firearms Civil Rights Conference. At the conference, which was attended by over 500 SAFE members, Bay Shore resident and business owner Edward Kaspshak presented Legislator Barraga with an award for his dedication to firearm's civil rights. Legislator Barraga in speaking to the conference emphasized that the Second Amendment – the right to keep and bear arms – is really the first Amendment in terms of importance and priority. It is the Second Amendment that will prevail when and if through circumstances the others fail.
