Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) recently attended the Moving Up Ceremony at the Eastern Suffolk BOCES Masera Learning Center located in West Islip.

The Masera Learning Center provides a transdisciplinary program, reflecting the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis to address the needs of elementary and middle school students with autism and related developmental disabilities.

A total of eight students received their certificates during the ceremony as they were cheered on by their fellow students, faculty, friends and family.

Principal Nicole Drinkwater presented a plaque to Legislator Barraga in recognition of his ongoing support of the dedicated staff and student body at Masera.
