HUNTINGTON, NY –Suffolk County Legislator Steve Stern (D-Huntington) 16th LD awarded Intel finalist Savina Kim with a Proclamation at the March 27th General Session of the Suffolk County Legislature. Savina, a senior at Commack High School, was one of only ten students in all of New York State and one of only 40 from a nation-wide pool of 1,839 applicants to be chosen as finalists.

“The Intel Science Talent Search competition is one of the most rigorous and well respected academic programs in the nation,” Legislator Stern said. “I congratulate Savina, members of the faculty, Research Department and the Commack School District on this remarkable achievement. I am certain that Savina will have great success in college and in her future endeavors.”
