LEGISLATOR STEVE STERN ADVISES RESIDENTS OF FREE MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE & BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE

Touro Law School to Provide Free Assistance to Homeowners on Friday, April 5, 2013

HUNTINGTON, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Steve Stern (D-Huntington) 16th LD, Chairman of the Veterans and Seniors Committee, is informing residents that the Mortgage Foreclosure & Bankruptcy Clinic (MF&B Clinic) at Touro Law School will be hosting a free legal housing, mortgage assistance and bankruptcy clinic on April 5, 2013 from 8:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. at the Touro Law Center, 225 Eastview Drive, Central Islip, NY. If your home sustained damage from Super Storm Sandy, if you are behind on your mortgage payments, are facing foreclosure, or are struggling with credit card debt, you will be able to meet with attorneys and law students from Touro Law Center, housing counselors, bank representatives and individuals from not-for-profit agencies, who will provide advice and assistance to homeowners. “I encourage homeowners to take advantage of this opportunity to receive free assistance from the Touro MF&B Clinic,” Legislator Stern said. “No one should have to navigate the foreclosure process alone.”

To RSVP or receive additional information, please contact the MF&B Clinic at (631) 761-7080.
