LEGISLATOR STEVE STERN CELEBRATES CENTENARIAN BIRTHDAY

Fay Cohen, a resident of The Atria in East Northport, marked her 100th birthday July 27.

HUNTINGTON, NY – Legislator Steve Stern (D-Huntington, 16th L.D), Chairman of the Veterans and Seniors Committee, recently celebrated the 100th birthday of Fay Cohen, a resident of The Atria in East Northport with her family and friends.

Fay Cohen was born on July 27, 1914, the daughter of Sam and Ida Binder and one of five children who lived and worked on the premises of Fox's U-Bet Syrup in Brooklyn, New York. In her early years, she worked as a seamstress on Long Island and then moved to Florida, where she lived for 40 years. Fay enjoys bowling and played the game until she retired at the age of 98. She raised two children and has four grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren with two more on the way.

“It is a privilege to celebrate such a momentous milestone,” Legislator Stern said. “Not only is it a wonderful occasion to reach one’s 100th birthday, but Fay’s represents a lifetime of happiness that deserves great celebration.”
