LEGISLATOR STEVE STERN HONORS EAGLE SCOUT

Liam Shanahan, of East Northport, achieved the prestigious rank in recognition of his service to our communities

Legislator Steve Stern honors Eagle Scout Liam Shanahan with a Proclamation for his esteemed scouting achievement.

HUNTINGTON, NY – Legislator Steve Stern (D-Huntington, 16th L.D) honored Liam Shanahan, of East Northport, with a Proclamation to mark the celebratory occasion of the young leader becoming an Eagle Scout, the highest rank attainable in scouting.

Liam earned the rank of Eagle Scout with The Boy Scouts of Suffolk County, Troop 200, after he devoted many hours of hard work to create a wall of four closets at the Parish Outreach Center within St. Anthony of Padua RC Church. The closets are utilized by several ministries to hold materials such as knitting items so that volunteers can make items for residents at the Department of Veterans Affairs in Northport, as well as baby blankets, hats, sweaters for young mothers in need.

“I am proud to honor Liam on becoming an Eagle Scout. His dedication to his Troop, peers and community is a testament to his character and we are all fortunate to have young leaders like Liam as role models in our community,” Legislator Stern said.
