HUNTINGTON, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Steve Stern (D-Huntington) 16th L.D. was honored to welcome Pastor Roy Minnix, of St. Luke Lutheran Church in Dix Hills to deliver the invocation at the March 24th General Meeting. Pastor Minnix joined St. Luke in January, 2014. A graduate of Concordia College, Pastor Minnix completed his Master's Degree in Divinity at Concordia Seminary and earned a Doctorate in Executive Leaders from St. John Fisher College in Rochester, NY. Pastor Minnix has served on the board of Habitat for Humanity, as a Rape Crisis Counselor and as head of the annual Holocaust Remembrance Commemoration for the Interfaith Council of Westchester. He brings his personal experience and deep spiritual commitment to the Dix Hills community.

“I am pleased to welcome Pastor Roy Minnix to the Legislature,” Legislator Stern said. “His words of wisdom and spiritual guidance are an inspiration to our entire community.”
