HUNTINGTON, NY- Suffolk County Legislator Steve Stern (D-Huntington) 16th L.D., Chairman of the Veterans and Seniors Committee, is advising veterans that the New York State Veterans Business Outreach Center (VBOC) and Suffolk County Veterans Services Agency will be hosting a Veterans Resource Day on Thursday, June 11th from 8:30 a.m. until noon at Farmingdale State College, Campus Center Ballroom, Farmingdale, NY.

This event will provide assistance to all veterans; service disabled, discharged, active duty personnel, reservists and National Guard members. Presentations will include Veterans Administration benefits and services available for veterans and their families. Representatives from the Small Business Administration, Internal Revenue Service, Touro Law Center and others will be available to provide information and answer questions.

“It is vitally important that we reach out to our veterans to provide them with information regarding available benefits, resources and training available to them and their families,” Legislator Stern said. “We owe the brave men and women who have sacrificed so much for our great nation, not only a debt of gratitude but meaningful support.”
