Legislator Anker Spotlights Revco Lighting in Miller Place

Legislator Anker with with Miller Place Branch Manager Adrian Szejter and the Revco team.

Miller Place, N.Y. – Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker joined Revco Lighting + Electrical Supply at the Grand Opening of their new showroom and counter on Saturday, September 19th. The grand opening included a ribbon cutting and tour of the new showroom in Miller Place (323B, Route 25A, Miller Place, NY). Food was also provided by Tuscany Gourmet Market.

“It is important for residents to shop local and to support our local economy,” said Legislator Anker. “Revco is a shining example of a small business growing and expanding because of community support.”

Revco Lighting + Electrical supply has been part of the Suffolk County community since 1978 when they opened their first storefront in Riverhead. Revco has opened additional locations in Southampton, East Hampton, Southold and Miller Place. For more information, please visit www.revcoelectric.com.
