Central Islip man convicted of rape and other charges

A Suffolk County jury today convicted a 28 year old Central Islip man of the rape of a child in 2008 and 2009.

Sean Seignious faces up to 50 years imprisonment when he is sentenced on August 10.

Seignious was arrested January 13, 2010 while on parole for a weapons charge.

Jurors convicted Seignious of two counts of rape in the first degree, one count of sexual abuse in the first degree and one count of endangering the welfare of a minor.

The jury deliberated one day in Riverhead after a two and half- week trial.
