Driver in fatal East Quogue crash had no alcohol or drugs in his system

Toxicology results of an East Quogue teenager's blood showed no alcohol or drugs in his system at the time of a fatal crash on Lewis Road on June 26.

Taylor Geib, 17, pleaded not guilty today in Southampton town court to charges of speed not reasonable and prudent and failure to maintain lane.

Geib's car overturned and struck a parked vehicle. His passenger, 18 year old Cameron Nicholls of Quogue died in the crash.

The investigation of the crash continues and an accident reconstruction will be performed.
