Arraignment for fatal pool hall fight

A 23-year old man is charged with second degree murder for the fatal beating of a man outside a Brentwood pool hall two weeks ago.

Jairon González-Martinez is also charged with attempted murder for severely beating another victim, Ramiro Garcia of Central Islip, during the fight outside Fiesta Pool Hall around 2 am on the morning of June 5.

When they arrived at the scene on Orient Avenue, police found Rumaldo Betancourt Lopez, 29, dead from head trauma.

González-Martinez pleaded not guilty to both charges today and is being held without bail in the county jail.
