Arraignment tomorrow of second suspect in Coram homicide

A Port Jefferson Station man will be arraigned tomorrow before Judge James Hudson on a grand jury indictment in connection with the shooting death of a Selden man in February.

Alex Fernandez, 19, of Ontario St., Port Jefferson Station, is charged in the murder of Luis Vargas on February 27 in Coram.

Vargas, 21, of 389 Dare Road, Selden, died of a gunshot wound to the chest.

Both Fernandez and his codefendant, Eduardo Nunez, 20, of Half Mile Road, Port Jefferson Station, are being held without bail in the Suffolk County jail.

Judge James Hudson (second floor of the courthouse) will unseal Fernandez's indictment.

Calendar call is at 9:30 am.
