Bayshore man indicted for fatal stabbing

A 28 year old Bayshore man is scheduled for arraignment on a grand jury indictment tomorrow (March 19) in Riverhead, Suffolk County District Attorney Thomas Spota said.

Witnesses held Wilfredo Flores for police after he allegedly stabbed Carlos Velasquez to death at 7 Pinewood Avenue on March 9.

When police arrived at the location, they found Velasquez, 40, in the street, mortally wounded with a stab wound. Detectives charged Flores of 50 Jensen Road, Bay Shore, with manslaughter in the first degree.

Judge James Hudson will unseal the indictment.

The court calendar will be called at 9:30 am.
