

communications

Narda

435 Moreland Road
Hauppauge, NY 11788
USA tel. 631-231-1700 Int'l tel. 01-631-231-1390
Human Resources
Fax: 631-231-1746

Sr. Engineer, Quality Assurance

Devise and implement advanced quality systems and procedures, inspection plans, quality performance trends, statistical plans, cost estimates and technical quality inputs to proposals. Maintain current knowledge of state-of-the-art engineering techniques, procedures, instruments and equipment.

Collaborate with Design and Manufacturing and Inspection personnel on procedural problems involving design, methods, tooling, cost and other areas involved in the control of product quality.

Participate in the Material Review Board activities, failure analysis and corrective action investigations.

Coordinate with customers and suppliers relating to quality performance, trends and corrective action. Perform both in-house and supplier audits and surveys to assure compliance to specified quality requirements.

Represent Company on IPC-610 Industry Committee. Provide classroom and/or one-to-one workmanship training (e.g. IPC-610 certification).

A Bachelor's Degree in Applied Science, BSEE preferred, and electronics manufacturing experience of at least five (5) years in an RF/MW components manufacturing, quality engineering role are required.

Director, Contracts

Direct/manage the contract operations function ensuring that the organization's interests are served, risks are mitigated and all corporate objectives are met or exceeded.

Act as the Division Empowered Official ensuring export compliance. Provide advice and counsel to executive management on various export strategies.

Oversee the management of property control program activities to ensure continual accountability of government or customer property and assets in accordance with corporate policy and/or government regulations.

Bachelor's degree in Business Administration or equivalent experience and a minimum of twelve (12) years of related experience including seven (7) years of supervision are required. Knowledge of Government Federal Acquisition regulations (FAR's) and Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFAR's) are also required.

If you are interested in one of these positions, apply on line at L-3com.com/career and search for jobs at Narda Microwave East.

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer M/F/D/V

3/11/2014